WHAT I DO

I help logistics companies

- expand their business and add routes into German-speaking countries
- increase their visibility among potential German-speaking clients
- navigate German bureaucracy more easily

How I do that?

By making sure all information comes across and translating not only language, but also culture

Interpretation of business negotiations

Main success: successful communication between a German logistics company and English-speaking clients during business negotiations that, ultimately, led to the establishment of business relationships, including the addition of several Europe-wide transportation routes to my client's portfolio

- client: logistics company in Leipzig, Germany
- date: 2020 - present
- volume: 23+ negotiations
- language combination: German into English and English into German

SUCCESS
STORIES

Translation of documents provided by clients

Main success: my German translations of English documents provided by potential international business partners helped my client gain an insight into their needs and expectations, ultimately allowing them to enter business negotiations with a tailored solution and logistics strategy and being able to add several new international business partners to their portfolio

STORIES

- client: logistics company in Ettlingen, Germany
- date: 2021 - present
- volume: 19k+ words
- language combination: English into German
